

United States Naval Academy

Problem:

We were contacted to provide not only a solution which would allow flexibility while adhering to the need for security, but to create custom displays honoring works of great inventors. Here we fabricated glass pieces to look like an open submarine throughout the two building campus. In addition, heavy glass panels suspended on heavy cable were used to display graphic images to tell the history of the Navy.

Solution:

