

University of Massachusetts

Problem:

The client was building a new sports facility and wanted to create a transparent look which would protect fans and viewers but would be aesthetically appealing. Here we engineered, fabricated and installed this one of a kind design.

Solution:

